

八年级 Phrase Preview Notes - Simple English Version

For students previewing junior middle school English. Read the easy meaning first, then read the example aloud.

译林八年级短语

Phrase	Simple meaning	Example
a little bit	a small amount or degree	I feel a little bit tired today.
sense of humour	the ability to understand and enjoy funny things	My friend has a good sense of humour.
keep secrets	to not tell other people private things	We should keep secrets.
get along with sb	to have a friendly relationship with someone	I want to get along with my friend.
as ... as	used to compare two people or things	My bag is as heavy as yours.
look forward to	to feel happy about something that will happen	I look forward to the school trip.
have a go	to try doing something	Do not be afraid. Have a go!
plenty of	a lot of something	There is plenty of time for reading.
be aware of	to know about something	We should be aware of the rules.
yours sincerely	a polite ending used in a formal letter	End a formal letter with Yours sincerely.
set ... apart	to make someone or something different from others	Good ideas set this project apart.
in order to	for the purpose of doing something	I study hard in order to improve my English.
come as no surprise	to be expected, not surprising	His success came as no surprise.
for free	without paying money	We can use it for free.
as ... as possible	as much or as well as someone can	Please come as early as possible.

rather than	instead of someone or something	I chose tea rather than cola.
coloured paper	paper with colour	I learned about coloured paper in English class.
be crazy about	to like something very much	My brother is crazy about basketball.
power cut	a time when there is no electricity	There was a power cut last night.
fill ... with	to make something full of something	Fill the bottle with water.
in a mess	untidy or not organized	My room is in a mess.
catch one's eye	to make someone notice something	The red kite caught my eye.
not only ... but also	used to add another important idea	She is not only clever but also kind.
giant panda	a large black-and-white panda	A giant panda eats bamboo.
in the wild	living in nature, not with people	We can use it in the wild.
even if	although something may happen	Even if, we should keep learning.
live on	to eat something or continue to live	Pandas live on bamboo.
as a result	because of this	As a result, we should keep learning.
take action	to do something to solve a problem	We must take action to protect animals.
nature reserve	a place where animals and plants are protected	I learned about nature reserve in English class.
thanks to	because of someone or something helpful	Thanks to my teacher, I did better.
in danger	not safe	We can use it in danger.
meat eater	an animal or person that eats meat	I learned about meat eater in English class.
blue whale	a very large whale	I learned about blue whale in English class.
at risk	in a situation that may be dangerous	We can use it at risk.
yeah excl	an informal way to say yes	I learned about yeah excl in English class.
be connected with	to have a relationship with something	I am connected with now.

on average	usually, when looking at the average number	We can use it on average.
take care	used to say goodbye or warn someone to be careful	Please take care after class.
get rid of	to remove something unwanted	We should get rid of bad habits.
carbon dioxide	a gas made when people breathe out or things burn	I learned about carbon dioxide in English class.
slow down	to become slower or make something slower	I learned about slow down in English class.
quite a few	many	I learned about quite a few in English class.
red-crowned crane	a large bird with a red mark on its head	I learned about red-crowned crane in English class.
lead to	to cause something to happen	Carelessness can lead to mistakes.
set up	to start or build something	They set up a reading club.
safe and sound	safe and not hurt	I learned about safe and sound in English class.
in fear	feeling afraid	We can use it in fear.
in all directions	everywhere, in many ways	We can use it in all directions.
say to oneself	to say something quietly to yourself	He said to himself, "I can do it."
calm down	to become quiet and not worried	I learned about calm down in English class.
put out	to stop a fire or light from burning	Firefighters put out the fire.
bush fire	a fire in a wild area with trees or bushes	I learned about bush fire in English class.
so far	until now	So far, we should keep learning.
right away	immediately	I learned about right away in English class.
tidal wave	a very large sea wave	I learned about tidal wave in English class.
used to	did something often in the past	I used to walk to school.

turn ... into	to change something into something else	Practice can turn a beginner into a good player.
in some ways	in some parts or points	We can use it in some ways.
from time to time	sometimes, but not often	We can use it from time to time.
all one's life	for a whole life	All my life, we should keep learning.
keep in touch	to continue talking or writing to someone	We keep in touch by phone.
be/get used to	to become familiar with something	I am used to junior high school life.
open space	an area without many buildings	I learned about open space in English class.
roller coaster	a fast ride in an amusement park	I learned about roller coaster in English class.
such as	for example	Such as, we should keep learning.
a couple of	two or a few	I learned about a couple of in English class.
at the end of	at the last part of something	We can use it at the end of.
theme park	a park with rides and a special theme	I learned about theme park in English class.
on business	for work, not for a holiday	We can use it on business.
remote control	a small device used to control a machine	I learned about remote control in English class.
main unit	the main part of a machine or computer	I learned about main unit in English class.
word processing	using a computer to write and edit text	I learned about word processing in English class.
so much for sth	used when you stop talking about something	So much for it, we should keep learning.
dream of/about	to hope strongly for something	I dream of becoming a writer.
my pleasure	used to answer thanks politely	I learned about my pleasure in English class.

be made up of	to consist of parts	Our group is made up of six students.
be tired out	very tired	I am tired out now.
fall over	to fall to the ground	I learned about fall over in English class.
hand in	to give homework or work to a teacher	Please hand in your homework tomorrow.
and so on	and other similar things	I learned about and so on in English class.
on time	not late	We can use it on time.
publishing house	a company that makes books	I learned about publishing house in English class.
at a time	during one period or one action	We can use it at a time.
open up	to open or make something possible	I learned about open up in English class.
cut in	to interrupt or move into a line	It is rude to cut in when others speak.
shake sb's hand	to hold and move someone's hand as a greeting	I shook the teacher's hand.
in public	where other people can see or hear	We can use it in public.
push in	to move into a line unfairly	I learned about push in in English class.
in one's way	blocking someone	We can use it in my way.
excuse me	used politely to get attention or say sorry	I learned about excuse me in English class.
as well	too	As well, we should keep learning.
by accident	not planned	We can use it by accident.
keep sb from sth	to stop someone from doing something	The rain kept us from the game.
soon after	a short time later	I learned about soon after in English class.
above all	most importantly	We can use it above all.
give up	to stop trying	Try to give up in the right way.
give a helping		Try to give a helping hand in the right hand	to help someone	way.

go to hospital	to go to the hospital for treatment	Let us go to hospital this weekend.
on board	on a ship, plane, or train	We can use it on board.
carry on	to continue doing something	Try to carry on in the right way.
hand out	to give things to people	Try to hand out in the right way.
make up one's mind	to decide	I made up my mind to work harder.
turn off	to stop a machine or light	Try to turn off in the right way.
cut down	to reduce or cut something	Try to cut down in the right way.
depend on/upon	to need or be decided by something	I learned about depend on in English class.
run out	to have none left	Try to run out in the right way.
make a difference	to make a situation better or different	Small actions can make a difference.
in place	in the right position	We can use it in place.

人教补充八年级短语

Phrase	Simple meaning	Example
take sb's breath away	to make someone feel very surprised or amazed	The mountain view took my breath away.
ready to do sth	prepared to do something	I learned about ready to do it in English class.
nothing but	only	I learned about nothing but in English class.
fight against sb / sth	to try hard to stop or beat someone or something	Doctors fight against illness every day.
thousands of	a very large number of	I learned about thousands of in English class.
in the sun	in sunlight	We can use it in the sun.
	to face the other way or become turn around	better	Try to turn around in the right way.

pack up	to put things into bags or boxes	I learned about pack up in English class.
hang up	to end a phone call or put something on a hook	Do not hang up the phone yet.
add sth to sth	to put one thing with another	Add some milk to the tea.
treasure hunt	a game where people look for hidden things	I learned about treasure hunt in English class.
give sb a lift	to take someone somewhere in a car	My uncle gave me a lift to school.
be careful with	to use or handle something carefully	I am careful with now.
the movies	films or the cinema	I learned about the movies in English class.
take notes	to write down important information	Take notes while you listen.
share sth with sb	to use or enjoy something with someone	I shared my book with my friend.
no matter	it does not matter what happens	No matter, we should keep learning.
spare time	free time	I learned about spare time in English class.
have sth in common	to share the same interests or features	We have many hobbies in common.
make a mistake	to do something wrong	We can make a mistake together.
silver lining	a good thing in a bad situation	I learned about silver lining in English class.
reach for	to stretch your hand to get something	She reached for the book on the shelf.
lend a hand	to help	Can you lend a hand with the boxes?
folding fan	a fan that can be folded	I learned about folding fan in English class.
feel free	to do something without worry	Feel free to ask questions.

take a walk	to walk for exercise or fun	Please take a walk after class.
be connected with / to	to be related or joined to something	This story is connected with history.
for this reason	because of this	We can use it for this reason.
play a part	to have a role in something	Everyone can play a part in protecting nature.
be home to sb / sth	to be the place where someone or something lives	The forest is home to many birds.
play a role	to have a part in something	Good habits play a role in success.
cut up	to cut into small pieces	Try to cut up in the right way.
pour sth into sth	to make liquid flow into something	Pour the juice into the glass.
cut sth in / into sth	to cut something into parts	Cut the apple into small pieces.
do with	to handle or be about something	What should we do with these old books?
put sth back	to return something to its place	Put the book back on the shelf.
mix ... with	to put things together	Mix the flour with water.
along with sb / sth	together with someone or something	We can use it along with the problem.
warm up	to prepare the body or become warmer	I learned about warm up in English class.
at least	not less than	We can use it at least.
one by one	one after another	I learned about one by one in English class.
keep on doing sth	to continue doing something	Keep on reading every day.
make sure	to check so that something is certain	We can make sure together.
try one's best	to do as well as you can	Try to try my best in the right way.
be tired of	to not like something anymore because it happens too much	I am tired of now.
stick to sth	to continue doing or following something	Stick to your plan.
have to do with sb /	to be related to someone or	This problem has to do with study

sth	something	habits.
draw to a close	to be nearly finished	The meeting drew to a close.
last but not least	used before the final important point	Last but not least, we should keep learning.
take over	to take control of something	Please take over after class.
emotional intelligence	the ability to understand feelings	I learned about emotional intelligence in English class.
run low	to have little left	Our water is running low.
depend on / upon	to need or be decided by something	I learned about depend on / upon in English class.
come over	to come to someone's place	I learned about come over in English class.
as long as	if; on the condition that	As long as, we should keep learning.
face to face	directly in front of someone	I learned about face to face in English class.
in person	by yourself, not by phone or online	We can use it in person.
worry about	to feel nervous about something	I learned about worry about in English class.
drop sb a line	to send someone a short message	Drop me a line when you arrive.
show interest in sth	to seem interested in something	She shows interest in science.
argue with sb	to speak angrily with someone	I learned about argue with my friend in English class.
move on	to continue after something ends	I learned about move on in English class.
pay attention	to listen or watch carefully	Try to pay attention in the right way.
be yourself	to act naturally and honestly	I am myself now.
social media	websites or apps for sharing online	I learned about social media in English class.
keep away from	to stay away from something	We should keep away from.
benefit ... from	to get good results from something	We benefit a lot from reading.
have a cold	to be ill with a cold	I have a cold today.

have a cold	to be ill with a cold	I have a cold today.
have a stomachache	to have pain in the stomach	I have a stomachache today.
lie down	to put your body flat on a bed or floor	I learned about lie down in English class.
take one's temperature	to check how hot someone's body is	The nurse took my temperature.
have a fever	to have a high body temperature	I have a fever today.
take breaks	to stop working for short rests	Please take breaks after class.
get into	to enter or become involved in something	I want to get into.
be used to	to be familiar with something	I am used to now.
take risks	to do something that may be dangerous	Please take risks after class.
cut off	to remove or stop the connection	Try to cut off in the right way.
get out of	to leave or avoid something	I want to get out of.
be in control of	to have power over something	You should be in control of your time.
give out	to give to many people or send out	Try to give out in the right way.
put off	to delay	Try to put off in the right way.
call up	to phone someone	Try to call up in the right way.
try out	to test something or try for a team	Try to try out in the right way.
fix up	to repair or arrange something	I learned about fix up in English class.
take after	to look or act like a family member	She takes after her mother.
take out the rubbish	to remove the rubbish from a house	Please take out the rubbish after class.
all the time	always or very often	All the time, we should keep learning.
What's wrong	used to ask what the problem is	What's wrong with your bike?
look through	to read or check quickly	Try to look through in the right way.

big deal	something important, often used in questions or negatives	I learned about big deal in English class.
get on with	to have a relationship or continue doing something	I want to get on with.
cut out	to remove or stop something	Try to cut out in the right way.
compare ... with	to look at two things and see differences	Do not compare yourself with others too often.
in one's opinion	as someone thinks	We can use it in my opinion.
go off	to make a loud sound or leave	Let us go off this weekend.
fall asleep	to start sleeping	I learned about fall asleep in English class.
die down	to become weaker or quieter	Try to die down in the right way.
have a look	to look at something	I have a look today.
make one's way	to go toward a place	We made our way to the classroom.
in silence	without speaking	We can use it in silence.
take down	to remove or write down	Please take down after class.
instead of	in place of someone or something	We can use it instead of.
once upon a time	used to begin a story	Once upon a time, we should keep learning.
fall in love	to begin to love someone or something	He fell in love with music.
get married	to become husband and wife	I want to get married.
as far as I know	from what I know	As far as I know, he is at home.
take in	to understand or let something enter	Please take in after class.
even though	although	Even though, we should keep learning.
at birth	when someone was born	We can use it at birth.
walk into	to enter or hit by walking	I learned about walk into in English class.
		I learned about or so in English or so	about	I learned about or so in English class.

full of	having many things inside	I learned about full of in English class.
ever since	from then until now	I learned about ever since in English class.
one another	each other	I learned about one another in English class.
amusement park	a park with rides and games	I learned about amusement park in English class.
tea art	the art of making and serving tea	I learned about tea art in English class.
tea set	cups and tools for tea	I learned about tea set in English class.
on the one hand ... on the other hand	used to show two different ideas	On the one hand, it is useful; on the other hand, it is hard.
all year round	during the whole year	All year round, we should keep learning.
yard sale	a sale of used things at someone's home	I learned about yard sale in English class.
bread maker	a machine for making bread	I learned about bread maker in English class.
soft toy	a soft toy animal or doll	I learned about soft toy in English class.
check out	to look at or pay and leave	I learned about check out in English class.
board game	a game played on a board	I learned about board game in English class.
junior high school	a school for lower secondary students	I learned about junior high school in English class.
clear out	to remove things you do not need	I learned about clear out in English class.
part with	to give up something you own	I learned about part with in English class.

		class.
as for	about; speaking of	As for, we should keep learning.
to be honest	used before saying what you really think	To be honest, we should keep learning.
close to	near or almost	I learned about close to in English class.

How to Study

- 1. Read five to ten phrases each day.
- 2. Read the example aloud twice.
- 3. Make one sentence about your school life.
- 4. Review old phrases before learning new ones.