

Grade 7 Phrase Preview Notes - Simple English Version

For students moving from Grade 6 to junior middle school. Read the meaning first, then read the example aloud.

译林七年级短语

Phrase	Simple meaning	Example
each other	one person does something to another person, and the other does the same	We help each other after class.
go by	to pass, especially time	Time goes by quickly at school.
be full of	to have many things or much feeling inside	The classroom is full of laughter.
be good at	to do something well	She is good at drawing.
be ready to do sth	to be prepared and happy to do something	I am ready to answer the question.
be interested in	to want to know or learn more about something	He is interested in science.
good luck	a wish that someone will do well	Good luck with your English test.
Chinese chess	a traditional board game from China	My grandpa teaches me Chinese chess.
at the weekend	on Saturday or Sunday	We play football at the weekend.
make friends with	to become someone's friend	I want to make friends with my new classmates.
all kinds of	many different types of things	There are all kinds of books in the library.
take ... apart	to separate something into pieces	Do not take the clock apart.
come true	to really happen after you hope for it	My dream will come true if I work hard.

role model	a person you can learn good things from	My teacher is my role model.
would like	to want something politely	I would like some water.
in the future	in the time after now	I want to be a doctor in the future.
sports field	a place for sports at school	Students run on the sports field.
dining hall	a large room where people eat	We have lunch in the dining hall.
take place	to happen	The school show takes place on Friday.
form teacher	the teacher in charge of a class	Our form teacher is kind and patient.
in fact	used to tell the truth or add real information	In fact, English is not hard if you practise.
care about	to think something is important	Good friends care about each other.
get up	to leave your bed after sleeping	I get up at seven every morning.
on weekdays	from Monday to Friday	I go to school on weekdays.
a little	a small amount	I feel a little tired today.
enjoy oneself	to have a good time	We enjoyed ourselves at the party.
field trip	a school trip to learn outside the classroom	We went on a field trip to a museum.
leave for	to go to a place	We will leave for Shanghai tomorrow.
of course	yes; certainly	Of course you can join us.
roller skate	to move on shoes with small wheels	Can you roller skate?
take part in	to join an activity	I will take part in the school sports meeting.
take turns	to do something one after another	We take turns reading the story.
take care of	to look after someone or something	Please take care of your little brother.

have a sweet tooth	to like sweet food very much	My sister has a sweet tooth.
depend on	to need someone or something; to be decided by something	Success depends on hard work.
for example	used before giving an example	I like fruit, for example, apples and bananas.
stand out	to be easy to notice because it is special	Her red coat stands out in the crowd.
be made of	to be built from a material you can still see	The desk is made of wood.
a set of	a group of things that belong together	I bought a set of pencils.
pay for	to give money for something	I used my pocket money to pay for the book.
per cent	out of one hundred	Ninety per cent of the students like the trip.
pocket money	money children can spend by themselves	I save my pocket money every week.
lucky money	money children get as a New Year gift	Children get lucky money during Spring Festival.
red packet	a red envelope with money inside	My grandma gave me a red packet.
in need	needing help	We should help people in need.
dragon boat	a long boat used in a traditional race	They watched a dragon boat race.
rice dumpling	a traditional food wrapped in leaves	We eat rice dumplings at the festival.
in the hope of	with the wish that something will happen	He studies hard in the hope of getting better grades.
spring roll	a kind of Chinese food with vegetables or meat inside	I like eating spring rolls.
at the moment	now; right now	She is doing homework at the moment.

put up	to place something on a wall or build something	Let us put up the poster.
mobile home	a home that can be moved	They live in a mobile home during the trip.
town house	a house in a town, often joined to other houses	My aunt lives in a town house.
living room	the room where a family sits together	We watch TV in the living room.
next to	beside; very near	The library is next to our classroom.
square metre	a unit for measuring area	The room is twenty square metres.
lunar calendar	a calendar based on the moon	Spring Festival follows the lunar calendar.
hold up	to lift or support something	Please hold up your card.
ground floor	the first floor at street level in British English	The office is on the ground floor.
police officer	a person whose job is to keep people safe and stop crime	A police officer helped the lost child.
police station	a building where police officers work	We went to the police station for help.
be willing to do sth	to be happy to do something	She is willing to help others.
any time	at any moment; whenever needed	You can ask me any time.
pick up	to lift something or collect someone	Please pick up the paper on the floor.
exchange student	a student who studies in another country or school for a time	An exchange student visited our class.
washing machine	a machine for washing clothes	The washing machine is in the bathroom.
give away	to give something to others for free	We give away old books to children.
show sb around	to take someone to see a place	I will show you around our school.

be well worth	to be very good or useful enough to do	The film is well worth watching.
place of interest	a famous or interesting place to visit	The Great Wall is a place of interest.
date from	to have existed since a time in the past	This old bridge dates from 1900.
fish and chips	a British dish with fried fish and potatoes	Fish and chips is popular in Britain.
up to	as many as; until; decided by	It is up to you to choose.
look after	to take care of	I look after my dog every day.
care for	to look after or like someone or something	Nurses care for sick people.
guinea pig	a small pet animal	My cousin keeps a guinea pig.
a few	some; a small number	I have a few questions.
cable car	a vehicle that moves on a cable, often up a hill	We took a cable car up the hill.
horse riding	the activity of riding a horse	Horse riding is exciting.
take a break	to stop and rest for a short time	Let us take a break after class.
on one's own	alone; without help	I can finish the homework on my own.
set off	to start a trip	We set off early in the morning.
find out	to learn information after trying	Please find out the answer.
be proud of	to feel happy because of someone or something good	My parents are proud of me.
at first	in the beginning	At first, I was nervous.
little by little	slowly, step by step	Little by little, my English got better.
because of	for the reason of	We stayed inside because of the rain.
roll out	to make something flat by rolling it	Roll out the dough carefully.
had better	should; it is a good idea to	You had better go to bed early.

no problem	used to say something is easy or okay	No problem, I can help you.
pass by	to go past someone or something	I pass by the park on my way home.
be born	to come into life as a baby	I was born in Nanjing.
walking stick	a stick used to help someone walk	The old man uses a walking stick.
in the face of	when facing a difficult situation	We should be brave in the face of problems.
too ... to	so ... that someone cannot do something	The box is too heavy to carry.

人教补充七年级短语

Phrase	Simple meaning	Example
get to know	to learn about a person or thing slowly	I want to get to know my new classmates.
full name	a person's complete name	Please write your full name here.
last name	family name	Wang is my last name.
class teacher	the teacher who looks after a class	Our class teacher is very helpful.
first name	given name	My first name is Ming.
play the guitar	to make music with a guitar	I can play the guitar after school.
would like to	to want to do something politely	I would like to join the club.
hot pot	a meal cooked in a hot soup at the table	We eat hot pot in winter.
ping-pong bat	a small bat used to play table tennis	This is my new ping-pong bat.
play ping-pong	to play table tennis	We play ping-pong after school.
fishing rod	a long tool used for catching fish	Dad bought a fishing rod.
a lot of / lots of	many or much	There are lots of students in the hall.
in the middle	in the center	The teacher stands in the middle of the room.
go hiking	to walk in nature for fun	We go hiking in autumn.

across from	opposite; on the other side	The bank is across from the school.
at the back	in the rear part	Tom sits at the back of the classroom.
different from	not the same as	My bag is different from yours.
do exercises	to do sports or practice tasks	We do exercises every morning.
similar to	almost the same as	This word is similar to that one.
bye for now	goodbye for a short time	Bye for now. See you tomorrow.
good with	able to deal with someone or something well	She is good with children.
help sb with	to help someone do something	Can you help me with maths?
listen to	to hear something carefully	Please listen to the teacher.
good at	able to do something well	He is good at swimming.
in class	during a lesson	We should listen carefully in class.
play Chinese chess	to play the Chinese board game	My father likes to play Chinese chess.
musical instrument	a thing used to make music	The violin is a musical instrument.
act out	to perform a story or scene	Let us act out the dialogue.
interested in	wanting to learn about something	I am interested in music.
more than	over; greater than	There are more than forty students in our class.
fall in love with	to start to love or like something very much	I fell in love with reading.
take photos	to use a camera to make pictures	We take photos in the park.
make use of	to use something well	We should make use of our time.
take a shower	to wash your body under running water	I take a shower after exercise.
get dressed	to put on clothes	I get dressed quickly in the morning.
on duty	doing a job you must do that day	I am on duty today.
daily routine	things you do every day	Brushing teeth is part of my daily routine.

ice hockey	a team sport played on ice	Ice hockey is popular in some cold countries.
prepare sth for	to get something ready for someone or something	Mum prepares breakfast for us.
home economics	a school subject about cooking and home life	We learn cooking in home economics.
make a wish	to hope for something	Make a wish before you blow out the candles.
take a photo	to use a camera to make one picture	Can you take a photo of me?
blow out	to stop a flame by blowing	He blew out the candles.
next time	the following time	I will do better next time.
one another	each other	Classmates should respect one another.
made of	built from a material	The kite is made of paper.
quite a	a fairly big or special amount of something	It is quite a nice day.
not ... at all	not in any way	The question is not hard at all.
late for	arriving after the right time	Do not be late for school.
jump the queue	to move in front of others unfairly in a line	It is rude to jump the queue.
absent from	not present at a place	He was absent from school yesterday.
make sb's/the bed	to make a bed neat after sleeping	I make my bed every morning.
hang out	to spend time relaxing with friends	We hang out after school on Friday.
focus on	to give attention to something	Focus on your homework, please.
think about	to use your mind to consider something	Think about your answer first.
jump rope	to skip with a rope	Many students jump rope at break.
hardly ever	almost never	I hardly ever stay up late.
over there	in that place	My bag is over there.
belong to	to be owned by someone	This book belongs to me.

working day	a day when people work or go to school	Monday is a working day.
full of	having many things inside	The box is full of toys.
What about	used to ask for an idea or opinion	What about going to the library?
go with	to match or be together with something	This hat goes with your coat.
fast food	food that is made and served quickly	Fast food is easy but not always healthy.
soft drink	a cold drink without alcohol	I would like a soft drink.
right now	at this moment	I am busy right now.
work on	to spend time doing or improving something	I am working on my English project.
hold on	to wait for a short time	Hold on, please. I will ask the teacher.
take a message	to write down information for someone	Can I take a message for you?
leave a message	to give information when someone is not there	Please leave a message after the beep.
call back	to phone someone again later	I will call you back after dinner.
time zone	an area that uses the same time	China has one main time zone. around the world	in many countries or places	People around the world learn English.
side by side	next to each other	We sat side by side on the bus.
drop off	to fall asleep; to take someone to a place	I sometimes drop off on the bus.
rain or shine	whatever the weather is like	We practise every day, rain or shine.
stay in	to stay at home or inside	I want to stay in tonight.
lucky you	you are lucky	You got the last ticket. Lucky you!
beach volleyball	volleyball played on sand	We played beach volleyball by the sea.
feel like	to want something or want to do something	I feel like drinking some water.
rest area	a place where people can stop and rest	Let us meet at the rest area.
make progress	to get better	You can make progress by practising.
in high spirits	happy and excited	The team was in high spirits after the win.

in high spirits	happy and excited	win.
at the top	in the highest place	Write your name at the top of the page.
at the start	at the beginning	At the start, I did not know anyone.
at the end	at the final part	There is a song at the end of the film.
run after	to chase	The dog ran after the ball.
meet up	to meet someone by plan	Let us meet up after school.
go on a trip	to travel somewhere for a short time	Our class will go on a trip next week.
write down	to write something on paper	Write down the new words.
from ... to	showing the beginning and the end	The shop is open from nine to five.
think of	to have an idea about someone or something	I cannot think of his name.
agree with	to have the same idea as someone	I agree with your idea.
once upon a time	used to begin a story	Once upon a time, there was a brave girl.
bite through	to cut something with teeth	The mouse can bite through the bag.
long ago	a long time in the past	Long ago, people wrote letters by hand.
tell the truth	to say what is really true	You should tell the truth.
make money	to earn money	He helps at the shop to make money.
all over	in every part of a place	Flowers are all over the garden.
search for	to look carefully for something	We searched for the lost key.
to sb's surprise	making someone feel surprised	To my surprise, I won the game.
only if	just when this condition is true	You can go out only if you finish your homework.
make a promise	to say that you will surely do something	I made a promise to study harder.
set ... free	to let someone or something go	The boy set the bird free.
instead of	in place of someone or something	I drink water instead of cola.
in the end	finally	In the end, we found the answer.

How to Study

1. Read five to ten phrases each day.
2. Cover the meaning and try to explain the phrase in your own words.
3. Make one new sentence about your school life.
4. Review old phrases before learning new ones.